Kagan Cooperative Learning

Do you want to raise student achievement? Reach every student? Want a practical 'do-it-tomorrow' guide that incorporates all the latest findings to motivate students? Then join us at the T2TUK Summer Academy the most spectacular training of the year and learn Kagan Structures for Active Engagement. If you have not attended a Kagan workshop before this is the place to start. Especially powerful for secondary teachers teaching 1-2 hour block lessons and for primary teachers wishing to increase engagement, boost SAT scores and reduce the achievement gap. Build powerful learning teams in your classroom. Use Kagan methods for team formation, teambuilding, classbuilding, management, knowledgebuilding, higher-level thinking, and social skills. You will leave with dozens of Kagan Structures, proven strategies that are easy to use tomorrow and for a lifetime. Finally a workshop that has practical, hands-on ideas grounded in sound research and theory.

Workshop Highlights:

Structures for Success

- Save valuable time and energy with easy-to-use structures that make lesson planning easy.

Participant Reviews:

"I can't wait to work with my kids on Monday! I want to learn more please! This was well worth my time. If you are teaching, you should be doing this."

— Marie Davies, English 11-18 teacher

"This was the best workshop I have ever attended as a teacher. The structures are the missing pieces to my classroom!"

— Cathleen O'Neil, Key Stage 2 Teacher

"I was so impressed by the workshop. After having taught for 23 years it has inspired me to change my teaching style. I feel refreshed by this new technique and am excited about using these structures in class."

Beth Taylor, Key Stage 1 Teacher

"Kagan has helped me to improve student achievement levels, self-esteem and social skills."

— Jackie Lynn, High School Teacher
